Irish-American Tenor Coming To Sing On March 17

An Irish-American tenor whee voice and selections are along the line of the work of John McCormack as Lambert Murphy, who will be heard in recital under the management of Cortess Bros., at the Goodwyn institute the night of St. Patrick's day, March 17

Three years with the Metropolitan Opera company eminently qualify the singer for concert work. In fact the demand for his services has been so great since his entry into the concert work that Mr. Lambert is now devoting all his time to this line of performances. Following a recent concert in New York oity where critics proclaimed him as one of the greatest finds among American tenors in a decade, Mr. Murphy's tour has been a series of ovaphy's tour has been a series of Surfeited, perhaps, for the nonce by the brilliant instrumental performance of Rudolph Ganz and Albert Spalding, lovers of the best music will welcome the sympathetic voice of Murphy and his reception here is expected to be the occasion for the outpouring of a large concourse of members of the dis-criminating music-loving public.

BRY'S MUST ORDER MORE ARMY SHOES

"Shoes for the whole family," says a big sign over the army shoe counter at Bry's. But, unfortunately, the whole family desires to be in different places at different times, therefore can't conveniently do a Mother Hubbard. The remaining stock of army shoes, after the first day's raid Friday, is in family sizes numberine from nines to twelves. sizes, numbering from nines to twelves, the smaller sizes having been sold out before the sale was seven hours old hefore the sale was seven hours on Friday.

Another thought occurs in connection with the large sizes only that are on sale. The police force is shy of men. There is an old song that goes something like "Ail policemen have big fact." Maybe the average Memphian's foot is too small for him to qualify as foot is too small for him to qualify as a gumshoe artist.

But here's good news for the mob that arrived too late to get shoes of the smaller sizes. An order for 4,000 more pairs has been sent.

Approximately 2,000 of the 2,700 pairs were sold the first day, and approximately half of these before the sale had been on two hours. The shortage of small sizes accounts for the fact the entire stock was not sold the first day, clerks say. During the afternoon hundreds went away shoeless—that is, without shoes under their arms in addition to on their feet—because the sixes, sevens and eights had been taken out.

LUMBERMEN WILL BE HOSTS TO ROTARIANS

The Lumbermen's club, of Memphis, will give a stag banquent and cabaret to the Memphis Rotary club at the Hotel Gayose on Thursday evening, March 4, beginning at 7 o'clock. Announcements of the affairs have been sent out to the members of the former club by the entertainment committee, of which Joe Thompson is chairman. The committee in addition to Mr. Thompson is composed of F. T. Dooley, S. C. Major, E. L. McLallen and F. E. Stonebraker. The banquet is an annual event of much importance in Rotary and lumber circles in Memphis and is being looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by the members of both clubs.

AMONG THE CHURCHES AND CHURCH SOCIETIES

The Bereans of the Decatur Street Christian church will elect officers for the ensuing year Sunday morning.

In the lesson study the teacher, Harris L. Browne, will offer for discussion the question "What Makes Food Taste Good?" All young men and ladles of the city are extended a cordial invitation to visit this class.

The parish meeting of Holy Trinity attendance was good. Splendid report attendance was good. Splendid reports of the various organizations were made. The following men were elected as vestrymen for 1920:
Messrs. R. J. Stanage, Lee Winchester, A. Chambers, I. N. Chambers, Frank Swift, W. M. Duncan, Pettus Davis, R. E. Atkinson, B. Doan, Floyd Scrixner, R. E. Bunting.

CINEMA OF CRIME REFLECTED UPON POLICE BLOTTER

"Poor Me" suddenly was transformed ato "Rich Me," Friday, if reports to "Poor Me" suddenly was transformed into "Rich Me." Friday, if reports to police Saturday from the Hessig-Ellis Drug company prove true.
""Poor Me" is a negro, using this distinctive title as an alias. His real name is Ed Davis. He has a long police record for minor offenses.
"Poor Me" has been driving a truck for the Hessig-Ellis company, wholesale druggists. He left Friday with 25 gallons of pure grain alcohol for the Moseley-Robinson Drug company.
"Poor Me" and the alcohol both are missing, but Detectives Bishop and Joyce, assigned to the case by Sleuth Chief Gwaltney, hope to find him helpless in some gutter.

Scorning safety, a burglar Friday night stole a dozen razors from the Bond Hardware company, 205 South Main street. They were the old-fashioned style, and the burglar's close shave will start only when he begins his first shave with one of them.

A burglar, who had packed a trunk full of articles in the home of L. W. Magruder, 275 Stonewall place, Friday night, was frightened away before he could drop the trunk from a window. He escaped with a pistol belonging to Mr. Magruder.

A lavalier, set with 13 diamonds; a dress, cut glass pitcher and sugar bowl were the loot of a thief who robbed Mrs. Annie L. Mogredge, 623 South Parkway, Friday night. Cops are looking for a glass fameler.

Observing a troubled grimace Saturday morning on the face of Joe B. Burney, chief of police, a reporter asked that official what was troubling him. "It's this dog-gone tomorrow that's coming," the chief explained. "Why, tomorrow's Sunday. You shouldn't worry about Sunday," the reporter cautiously advised. "That's just it," the chief replied. "It isn't like other Sundays. Tomorrow is Sunday, Feb. 29—the fifth Sunday in the month, and leap year February. too."

The secret was out!

Chief Burney, being a handsome bachelor, feared that some matrimonially inclined female might telephone him at his residence or his office. For, while he'll face a pistol without changing color, the chief actually is afraid of the bonds of matrimony.

A burglar evidently seeking fish for Priday, was overtaken by the midnight hour Priday night, and changed his choice. Being already in the fish store of J. J. Carrigan, 113 North Main street, the midnight provier selected 50 gallons of cooking oil instead of the fish went to seek. He took the oil away in containers he brought with him.

When the robbery was reported to central police headquarters Saturday morning, the information came along that the burglar had overlooked $2,000 worth of fish and oysters.

GOES TO PITTSBURGH

Joseph A. Werne, general freight agent for the Southern railway at Memphis, will leave the service of the Southern railway at the termination of federal control, to accept a high traffic position with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, with headquarters at Pittsburgh Pa. It was announced Saturday. Mr. Werne leaves for Pittsburgh Saturday night.

VERY LIGHT RECEIPTS STIFFENS CORN PRICE

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Unusual scarcity of corn here with the winter crop movement at an end has given much impetus this week to price upturns in the corn market. Compared with a week ago, corn quotations this morning varied from 18 cents off to 4 1-40 attraction of the construction of the construction of the construction. At times all other considerations in regard to corn were eclipsed by the At times all other considerations in regard to corn were eclipsed by the fact that receipts continued scanty and that no big accumulation is Chicago, or any of the leading terminals was now expected. Speculators who had sold corn on account of weakness of sterling exchange and owing to hearish opinions about the economic outlook were forced to cover on a rising market. Oats were governed by the action of corn.

Decreased employment at the packing houses was apparently significant of the slowness of trade in provisions.
